1. Click Safari
2. Select Google
3. Click on the search bar
4. Type the background you want. Example: paris
5. Click Search
6. Click images
7. Scroll and click the image you like.

8. Screen shot the image. Press at the same time.

9. Select the screen shot at the bottom left corner of the page.

10. Crop the picture. Drag the corners.

11. Crop the top too.

12. When you are finished cropping Click done.
13. Click save to photos.

14. Press the home button at the bottom of the iPad.

15. Click the camera button.

16. Select video for filming or photo to take a picture.

17. Click the middle button to take photo or record.

18. Take the video or picture in front of the green screen.
19. Click the home button on the iPad when you have finished.

20. Click the green screen app.

21. Click the arrow on the top left to start a new project.

22. Select the blue 'T' on the top right of the screen.

23. Select create new project.

24. Click the bottom right corner 'T'
Click image. This will be your background.

Select ‘use’.

Select ‘All’

Crop the picture if you want to make it bigger or smaller.

Select the background picture you cropped.
31 Select the middle ![image]

34 Select the video or image of you in front of the green screen.

32 Select video or image. Video if you filmed or image if you took a photo of yourself.

35 Select 'use'

33 Select 'All'

36 Select the ![image] symbol to crop your image or video.
If there is any other colour in the background crop it out. Slide the corners to do this.

Select done.

Crop yourself by using two fingers. Bring them together to make the image smaller.

Move the image where you would like it in the photo.

Press play 🔁 to make sure you are happy with it.

Select save.
Select Save to camera roll.

Select "Ok."

Congratulations you have finished your green screen.

Now upload it to Seesaw.